Important Stuff to Know

Bay Windows with opening windows will have different heights, as such the louvres will not match in height!

Air Vents and other obstructions

Your PF shutter frame will overlap the window frame by 25mm from the glass.
This should be enough clearance for vents and handles.

Always double check!

Handle Positions

Never assume the handles are central
For Left and Right Handles measure from Bottom up to the Centre of the handle
For Top and Bottom handles measure from the Left

Always from the Glass not the window frame!

Wide Windows

The maximum panel width is 750mm glass size, a window larger than this will need 2, 3 or more panels, depending on size. To calculate the size of the panels divide the glass width by the number of panels you need, ensuring you do not go over the maximum size of 750mm.

For Example, a 1200mm wide window divided by 4 would give 4 panels of 300mm width.

Wide Windows with Handles

If the handle is at the bottom or top and in the middle, you will need an odd number of panels because the handle rebate can't be cut out across 2 panels.

Multi Panels will always have a astragal to cover the gaps between the panels to give a neat finish

Light

The PF Shutter is not blackout and should never be sold as such.
The top and bottom rails are 6mm thinner than the side rails which will give a 3mm gap against the window. Always inform your customer to avoid issues down the road.

Clips

As standard you will have 4 clips, 2 at the bottom and 2 at the top
If the side rails are longer then 1mtr you will also have 1 side clip on each side at the centre.

Exclusive Stuff (Clip Covers & Shims)

Clip covers, the clips are not especially pleasing to the eye.
We have developed and made a "cover" to give a more finished Look, these are exclusive to us designed and 3D printed in house
They will included with every order at no cost!

Shims, we also have a range of "packing" shims that sit behind the clip and the window frame, which will help the clip fit square and true into the PF Frame, this will help with clips not sitting correctly.

The shims can also be used for Sub 20mm frames using foam tape and the shims to suite.
E.G a window with 16mm bead depth can be fitted using a 20mm clip with a 4mm shim and foam tape to suite.
